CONTENTS

Volume 49 Number 1 March 1992

EDITORIAL

The 'new look' Journal, A. D. Farr 1

Medical Laboratory Sciences: statement of editorial policy and full instructions to authors 3–7

ORIGINAL ARTICLES

Diagnosis of bacterial vaginosis in a routine diagnostic laboratory, F. M. Burns, I. M. Gould, A. Patterson & W. J. Wood 8–11

Escherichia coli: rapid identification by chromogenic tests, S. F. Dealler, D. Law, J. Collins & P. Parnell 12–15

High level gentamicin resistance in enterococcal and streptococcal isolates from blood culture, P. J. Stevens, N. A. Hutchinson and R. E. Holliman 16–19

Speech recognition and the clinical microbiology laboratory, S. P. O'Hara, T. N. Bryant, E. C. Oji and D. J. F. Rowe 20–26

Urinary amphetamines, benzodiazepines and methadone: cost-effective detection procedures, F. M. L. Moore, D. R. Jarvie and D. Simpson 27–33

Carbamylation and glycosylation of haemoglobin in vitro: effects of cyanate and glucose, A. Ationu 34–37

Immunohistochemical demonstration of B- and T-lymphocyte cell surface markers: an assessment of tissue transport/storage media, Ann Carmichael and George R. Coghill 38–46

Anti-paternal lymphocyte antibodies: a modified cellular enzyme-linked immunospecific assay (CELISA), D. C. Kilpatrick, A. J. Kitchin and W. A. Liston 47–49

Syphilis diagnosis: screening by enzyme immunoassay and variation in fluorescent treponemal antibody absorbed (FTA-ABS) confirmatory test performance, G. Chronas, A. Moyes and H. Young 50–55

Glutamate pyruvate transaminase as an indicator of infection with Plasmodium falciparum, A. T. Wurie and S. O. M. Mahdi 56–59

Isolation of enteroviruses and adenoviruses in continuous simian cell lines, A. S. Bryden 60–65

Anti-HBs detection: a modified passive haemagglutination assay, C. P. McDonald, J. A. J. Barbara, A. Al-Izzi, R. Ahya, N. Vyas and M. Contreras 66–69

Western blotting is a sensitive technique for the detection of anti-PI^{A1}, H. Chana, A. Lubenko and L. Forsi 70–76

BIOMEDICAL UPDATE

Colorectal cancer, S. L. Mera 77–82

SHORT COMMUNICATION

Serum low density lipoprotein separation: a simple procedure, M. S. Graziani, G. Dmitri and U. Lippi 83–84

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR 85–86

BOOK REVIEWS 87–92

Volume 49 Number 2 June 1992

EDITORIAL

Why read book reviews?, A. D. Farr 93

ORIGINAL ARTICLES

Counts of viable tubercle bacilli in sputum related to smear and culture gradings, B. W. Allen and D. A. Mitchison 94–98

A modified Ziehl-Neelsen stain for mycobacteria, Janet L. Allen 99–102

Toxoplasmosis and laboratory workers: a case-control assessment of risk, S. L. Parker and R. E. Holliman 103–106

REVIEW ARTICLES

In situ hybridization: a review of methodologies and applications in the biomedical sciences, B. S. Mitchell, D. Dhami and U. Schumacher 107–118

Fundamentals of the polymerase chain reaction: A future in clinical diagnostics?, R. Rapley, B. D. M. Theophilus, I. S. Bevan and M. R. Walker 119–128

ANNOTATION

Gel techniques in blood group serology, I. M. Bromilow 129–132

SHORT COMMUNICATIONS

Measurement of faecal ammonia, A. Duncan and M. J. Stewart 133–134

Factor VIIIc inhibitors: an automated assay, R. Luddington and I. Jennings 135–137

Haemoglobin A_2 measurement using high performance liquid chromatography, R. Deacon-Smith and I. Lord 138–140

Von Willebrand factor antigen: a radial immunodiffusion method evaluated and compared with an ELISA method, A. D. Blann 141–143

Legionella pneumophila species identification using a commercial latex agglutination kit: a potential cross-reaction problem with serogroup 12, I. R. Richardson and N. F. Lightfoot 144–146

THESIS ABSTRACTS 147–148

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR 149–151

BOOK REVIEWS 152–158

Volume 49 Number 3 September 1992

EDITORIAL

IMLS 92, A. D. Farr 159

LEADING ARTICLE

Biomedical science, health and the environment, D. J. Rogers 160

ABSTRACTS FROM THE IMLS 92 CONFERENCE

Cellular pathology 161–167

Clinical chemistry 168–174

Haematology 175–184

Immunology 185–195

Microbiology 196–218

Transfusion science 219–222

Miscellaneous 223–230

Additional titles 231

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR 232–233

BOOK REVIEWS 234–240

Volume 49 Number 4 December 1992

EDITORIAL

A change of name, A. D. Farr 241

LEADING ARTICLE

Pathology and the ageing population, S. L. Mera 242–243

ORIGINAL ARTICLES

Breast tumour thymidine kinase levels and disease recurrence, K. L. O'Neill, V. J. McKelvey, M. Hoper, H. Monteverde, G. W. Odling-Smee, H. Logan, W. P. Abram and P. G. McKenna 244–247

Serum creatinine assays in patients receiving the antibiotic Cefpirome (HR 810): a study of three different routine methods compared with a specific HPLC method, E. F. Legg and J. M. Guy 248–251

Isolation of circulating megakaryocytes in man, M. J. Woods, C. R. Landon, B. E. Wagner, M. Greaves and E. A. Trowbridge 252–258

Use of Technicon H*1 technology in routine thalassaemia screening, E. P. Robertson, A. Pollock, K. S. Yau and L. C. Chan 259–264

Serum IgG and IgM levels in new and regular long-term plasmapheresis donors, M. Burgin, G. Hopkins, B. Moore, J. Nasser, A. Richardson and R. Minchinton 265–270

REVIEW ARTICLES

Senescence and pathology in ageing, S. L. Mera 271–282

Neuroendocrinology and ageing, P. A. O'Neill 283–290

Water homeostasis and ageing, P. A. O'Neill and K. A. McLean 291–298

Free radicals, antioxidants and ageing, V. W. Bunker 299–312

ANNOTATIONS

Ageing and free radicals, J. M. C. Gutteridge 313–318

Principal alterations to drug kinetics and dynamics in the elderly, C. Leslie, P. J. W. Scott and F. I. Caird 319–325

Diagnostic dilemmas in acutely ill elderly people, T. A. Farnsworth and G. P. Mulley 326–333

Bovine spongiform encephalopathy (BSE): a stimulus to wider research, D. M. Taylor 334–339

SHORT COMMUNICATION

Stereomicroscopy in clinical microbiology, M. M. Lynch 340–342

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR 343

BOOK REVIEWS 344–348

AUTHOR AND SUBJECT INDEXES 349–358
